

Ngati Rangiwewehi

Nominee Profiles

Emil Richard Hancock

Kia Ora

My full name is Emil Richard Hancock however I am better known as Rikihana. I have been involved with tāke pertaining to Ngati Rangiwewehi for the last 21 years and am a current member of the Rangiwewehi claims team, of which I am one of our tribal researchers or Kai Rangahau. The experience I have had with fisheries was that I was one of the foundation members of the Trust Board, i.e. Te Kotahitanga o Te Arawa Waka Fisheries Trust Board.

Tangihaere Macfarlane

Hard-working, vocal and effective representative for Ngati Rangiwewehi on Te Kotahitanga o Te Arawa Waka Fisheries Trust Board since 2004.

Inaugural Secretary of Maketu Fishing and Recreation Club.

Past Treasurer for Tarimano Marae Trust and Rangiwewehi Charitable Trust.

Skilled in governance and management.

Successful self-employment over more than 20 years.

Respected contributor to local development with many years involvement in community affairs.

A strong advocate over many years for positive change to enhance Iwi well-being.

Nga mihi maioha ki a koutou Ngati Rangiwewehi.

Mauri ora ki a tatou.

Wharekonehu Te Moni

I Wharekonehu Te Moni chairman Hauraki Marae. I have been there for five years as chair. I also chair the kiwifruit orchard of Meretaka Trust, Welcome Bay Road, Tauranga. I am also a trustee on my fathers whenua which is called Maungarangi Block at Paengaroa, Te Puke.

Kia Ora.

Noho Ora Mai
